

Rev. Kathleene Card is the pastor at Peterborough United Methodist Church, in Peterborough, New Hampshire. She is a retired Elder from the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. For two years, she served as an Interim Associate Pastor at A & M UMC in College Station, Texas, while on loan from the Virginia Conference. Prior to moving to College Station, Pastor Card served as Associate Pastor for eleven years at Trinity UMC and then as Senior Pastor for two years as at Chesterbrook UMC in McLean, Virginia. She is a graduate of Wesley Theological Seminary (M.Div.), George Mason University (M.A.), and the University of Massachusetts in Boston (B.A.). She served on the Board of Trustees at Wesley Theological Seminary, was a member of the Massachusetts Port Authority and The Babson College Board of Trustees.

Rev. Card has experience as a teacher and an Administrator in the Federal Government, where she served as the Director of the Office of External Affairs at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission from 1988-1993, and as a Project Director at The Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution from 1986-1988. However, whether she was teaching English, managing a staff, or working in the Church her love of God and God's people has always been the driving force in her life.

She and Dr. Dianne Martin authored a devotional book, Pray. Act. Pray Again.

Kathleene Card lives in Jaffrey, New Hampshire with her husband, Andrew Hill Card, Jr. They have three grown children and six grandchildren.
